

Announcement of Contest Winners

The editorial board of the Glasnik of the Bar Association of Vojvodina announces that at the editorial board meeting held on April 1, 2026, a decision was made regarding the winners of both contests, which the editorial board announced in 2025.

In the contest for the “Milorad Botić” award, the winning submission titled “From Cádiz to Kragujevac: The Echoes of La Pepa in the Sretenje Constitution” was authored by Milan Momčilović.

In the contest for the “Katarina Lengold Marinković” award, the winning submission titled “The child’s right to express an opinion” was authored by Valentina Stanković.

All submissions that have received two positive reviews will be published by the end of this year in our journal, which the authors will be individually notified about.

The journal's editorial board thanks all the participants in the contests and announces that new contests for the year 2026 will soon be announced.

In Novi Sad, April 2, 2026.

Editorial Board